The Logo

The Iron Tribe Fitness Logo is the most immediate representation of our company, our people, and our brand. It is a valuable corporate asset that must be used consistently in the proper, approved forms.

Other Approved Logos

We have two variations of our main logo —the “fitness” logo and the “fun-fast-fit” logo. Both convey our Iron Tribe brand and are of equal importance.

The Mark

In high-awareness markets, we lead with the mark symbol. There is power in owning a symbol: it's universal and instantly identifiable as shorthand for our brand. However, without using the proper colors, the mark might not read as Iron Tribe Fitness, which is why it always appears in brand colors.

Whenever possible, we encourage using the gradient version or the white version.

Logo Spacing

The logo appears in a variety of places, surrounded by many different elements such as patterns, other logos, images, or graphics. The space around the logo is essential for readability and legibility. As a rule of thumb, half of the height of the logo (x) should be left on all sides of the logo.

The same rule applies for the mark. Leave .25 of the height of the mark (x) around the mark.

Logo Use

Our logos commonly appear on solid colors and photos. Avoid placing the logo on low-contrast backgrounds, busy backgrounds and altering the logo.

Good Logo Use

The logo is placed on a dark, blurred-out background, allowing the logo to “pop” and be in the main focus of the image.

Poor Logo Use

Because the background doesn't provide high contrast, the logo is lost.

Logo Use

Avoid doing any of the below alterations to the logo:

✗ Don't stretch the logo

✗ Don't use off-brand colors

✗ Don't use excessive shadowing

✗ Don't "stack" the logo

✗ Don't place an object on the logo

✗ Don't put a border around the logo

Program Logos

We offer four programs at Iron Tribe — PRIME, POWER, PERFORM and PEAK.

Example of good font use:

The poster features a dark, blurred background of people in a gym. At the top left is the Iron Tribe logo, consisting of an orange stylized 'X' followed by the word 'IRONTRIBE' in white. Below the logo, the text 'Now Hiring' is in large white bold letters, and 'Coaches' is in smaller white bold letters. A paragraph of white text follows: 'Are you passionate about fitness? Want to change lives in your community? Then we want to talk with you! Iron Tribe is now hiring coaches in the Birmingham area. Only a few positions available.'

Annotations with dotted lines point to specific elements:

- Logo placed at top
- Headline font: Ridley Grotesk
- Subhead font: DIN 2014 Narrow
- Body font: Avenir

Posters

Posters are how we communicate upcoming events and deals to current members. These are to be prominently displayed on gym walls and other high-traffic areas.

It is important to keep posters in line with our brand standards. This is established by always having the logo prominently displayed and using our fonts.
